This date I responded back to the above location in regards to talking with this subject that had sold a shotgun to our victim's boyfriend. I also met with Debbie Stovall, a secretary there and released the VCR surveillance tape back to her with her signing the back of my seizure report.

I asked Jim to tell me what happened when this subject came in to buy the shotgun. He stated he came in and he and Bruton were the only ones in there at the time. He stated he asked him to see a shotgun. He walked over by the hunting guns and he asked him how much they were. Upon telling him he stated Bruton said he did not want to pay that much for a shotgun. He stated he walked on down to another counter and asked to see a Remington 870 riot, 18 3/4" barrel, black in color. He stated he asked to see it and upon him asking the price he told him he could buy it for $239.00. He stated Bruton told him that he would take it. He stated he walked back and got the gun box and brought it up front, disassembled the gun putting it in the box. He stated Bruton advised him that he wanted to buy one (1) box of ammo. He stated he did not remember for sure and I asked him if he could have sold him a box of five (5) deer slugs and he stated that was correct. He stated he paid him cash and Bruton filled out the federal firearms form and that he had a valid Missouri driver's license.

I asked him if Bruton said anything to him about doing any weird things and he stated no. He stated he was kind of abrasive when he first walked through the door. I asked him if he had told him that he was going hunting and he stated no. He stated that Bruton did not carry on much of a conversation. I asked him if he acted kind of nervous and he stated no. He further stated he thinks Bruton had a ear ring in his right ear if he remembered correctly and had a slight beard growth.

I asked him if Bruton was by himself and or if he had anyone else with him in his car. He stated he came in there by himself and he did not see him get into a car. He stated he could not tell me anything further. No further action taken at this time.
